About Indira Gandhi College:

Welcome to Indira Gandhi College, nestled in the heart of Boitamari, Bongaigaon, Assam. Our college is a hub of learning, surrounded by the lush greenery of the North Salmara sub-division and the majestic Bhairav Chura Hill. The gentle River Tunia flows nearby, creating a soothing melody that inspires our students to reach new heights. Our college's story began on September 10, 1995, when the Honorable Chief Minister, Sri Hiteswar Saikia, laid the foundation stone. Under the guidance of local visionaries and the then MLA, Sri Chandan Kumar Sarkar, our institution took shape. We are proud to be named after the former Prime Minister, Smt. Indira Gandhi, a true leader who transformed India's destiny. As a single-stream Arts Degree College affiliated with Gauhati University, we have grown into a vibrant community of learners. Our campus is easily accessible by rail and road, just 35 km from New Bongaigaon Railway Station and approximately 200 km from Lokpriya Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport, Guwahati. At Indira Gandhi College, we blend tradition with innovation, fostering a love for learning that extends beyond the classroom. Join us on this journey of discovery and growth, surrounded by the beauty and wonder of Assam's heartland.
